

Innovations, Legacy Projects of the Province Implemented by ENRO

- PGA-ENRO, as a pioneer member of the Technical Working Group on Hospital Waste Processing Facility establishment, has facilitated the proposed project's application process for environmental permits which include Environmental Compliance Certificate, Permit to Operate and Waste Water Discharge Permit; all of which were granted with approval. The office also took part in designing the standard operating procedures in the proposed facility. Presently, the construction of the said facility has already started.